

- 3) This class is about ENERGY, so why are we talking about POVERTY and all the related concepts such as life expectancy, per capita GDP, and fecundity (number of babies per woman)? In short, what does the study of energy have to do with the societal concerns of poverty?