

ARE YOU THINKING BIG ENOUGH?

A chat with Beyond Burger inventor Tim Geistlinger

“I want Cal Poly students to think bigger, have fun, ask for help and harness serendipity. There are so many ways to help people and change the world through science that you can’t even imagine right now.”

TIM GEISTLINGER

Biochemistry alumnus ('92), inventor of the animal-free Beyond Burger

Be inspired to think big by a former Cal Poly student whose innovations also include cancer therapeutics and treatments for symptoms associated with HIV-AIDS.
